

2021 GBRC & Haggen Scholarship Application Form

A $1000 running scholarship will be awarded by the Greater Bellingham Running Club to two qualified college bound seniors from Whatcom County High Schools.

Candidates should have a current love and dedication to the sport with an intention to continue running in the future, however competing at the college level is not a requirement.

The scholarship is intended for college related expenses (ie tuition, books, room & board).

The decision will be made exclusively from the information provided in the application and the GBRC Scholarship Committee has the sole responsibility for choosing the recipients based on the core values of the club.

Completed applications must be received no later than March 31, 2021 and emailed to the following address: scholarships@gbrc.net Please send all requested information in a single PDF file with the Applicants name and date as the title. (example: First&LastName.PDF)
